Gladys Aylward, Noted as 'The Small Woman,' to Speak Here

Gladys Aylward, who rose from the position of a London parlormaid to become a legend in her own lifetime through heroic service in war-ravaged China, will speak Sunday morning at 9:15 and 10:45 at the First Baptist Church of Torrance, 2118 Carson St., according to the Rev. Robert Dehn, acting pastor. Because of having Miss Aylward as a guest Sunday morning, a special service for mothers with special awards will be held at the 7:30 p.m. Evangelistic service.

Miss Aylward, known as "The Small Woman" whose story was condensed in book form by the Reader's Digest and portrayed on the screen in the "Inn of the Sixth Happiness," has arrived in America as guest of World Vision Inc., a national missionary service agency with headquarters in Pasadena. It is her third speaking tour of North America.

BORN IN ENGLAND, Miss Aylward long dreamed of going to China as a missionary, but was unable to obtain backing because of lack of education. She determined to go anyhow without help from anyone. In 1930, equipped with railroad tickets, her Bible, ninepence in coins and two one-pound traveler's checks (less than $8), Gladys Aylward made the "impossible" trans-Siberian trip by rail to the land to China where she eventually became a citizen.

Her life in a remote town of northwest China became a series of dramatic events. She stopped a prison riot alone by calmly facing and ax-wielding inmate, rescued a child from a dealer in human lives, led the district's exalted Mandarin to accept Christianity, and saw many other miracles of faith.

WHEN WAR with Japan broke out, dangers for the Small Woman increased. She was cruelly beaten by soldiers, and on one occasion miraculously survived after being shot and used for target practice by the invading soldiers. Then, as a fugitive, without money or food, she led 100 homeless children on an epic journey across the wild mountains to safety.

Miss Aylward recently conducted a highly successful speaking tour of Australia and New Zealand. She returns to America from Formosa, where she is continuing work among the Chinese and with homeless orphans.

An invitation is extended to all to hear this Missionary Warrior, the Rev. Mr. Dehn said. A nursery is open for all services of First Baptist Church.

Polio Clinic Slated

A $1 polio and tetanus clinic will be held at the Del Amo School, 1825 E. 213th St., from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 15, under the auspices of the Los Angeles County Medical Assn.

Perfection Of God Is Lesson-Topic

The perfect nature of spiritual creation will be emphasized at all Christian Science services on Sunday.

Among the Bible passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" is this one from Genesis (1:26, 27), "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: . . . So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

"God created all through Mind, and made all perfect and eternal," declares Mary Baker Eddy in a correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Again she says, "Existence, separate from divinity, Science explains as impossible. Immortal men and women are models of spiritual sense, drawn by perfect Mind and reflecting those higher conceptions of loveliness which transcend all material sense."

The Golden Text is from Job (8:30), "Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers."

Banquet Feting Mothers Slated Friday Evening

Mrs. Edwin Kurth, well-known lecturer, will speak at the mother-daughter banquet to be held at Ascension Lutheran Church Friday evening.

Mrs. Kurth is the mother of six children and has several grandchildren. The topic of her talk will be "The Joys and Expectations of Motherhood."

The mother-daughter banquet is being sponsored by the Ascension Lutheran Women's League. Mrs. Frank Jacobson will be the mistress of ceremonies.

Also speaking at the banquet is Mrs. Gladys Christianson, owner of the Virginia Patio Flower Shop. Mrs. Christianson will give a demonstration of floral arrangements. Musical selections and other entertainment will also be presented.

The Rev. Lloyd C. Warneke, pastor of Ascension, will lead the table prayer and give the benediction. Pastor Warneke will be honored as the only male guest at the banquet.

The program will begin at 6:30 p.m. A home-cooked meal has been planned. For ticket information, contact Mrs. John Martin, banquet chairman.

Beth Torah Slates Talk By Composer

Robert Strassburg, outstanding composer, conductor and lecturer, will be guest speaker at Southwest Temple Beth Torah, 14725 S. Gramercy Place, Gardena, Wednesday, May 16, at 8:15 p.m.

Strassburg is first graduate student at the school of fine arts of the University of Judaism where he is taking his doctorate under the direction of Max Helfman, dean of the school.

Composer of many fine works, he also composed the comic opera "Chelm" based on a folk fantasy by Sholem Aleichem and is founder of the All Miami Youth Symphony where he conducted the National Symphony Orchestra at the invitation of the Columbian government which launched the government-sponsored Festival of Liberty in 1959.

The topic for the evening will be "Great Music inspired by the Bible."

Church Plans Recognition For Mothers

Mother's Day Services have been scheduled at the First Missionary Baptist Church, 1429 W. 182nd St., on Sunday. Sunday School classes will be held at 10 a.m. and worship services at 11, according to the Rev. George M. Rowell, pastor. Special recognition has been planned for the youngest and oldest mothers present, and for the mother with the most children in church.

The lift of her laughter, the clasp of her hand . . . Every precious memory is yours to treasure.
